

MR. JACK HARTLEY MARKS 45th ANNIVERSARY WITH EATON'S

The pictures on this page were taken as Mr. Jack Hartley of Calgary celebrated his 45th anniversary with the Company. Mr. Hartley is our Provincial Auditor.

Above, left—Mr. Hartley and the Hi-Fi tape recorder that was his anniversary gift from the Management and Department Managers of all the Alberta Stores and the Winnipeg Audit Department.

Right—An illuminated scroll from the Management of the Calgary Store was one of the mementoes Mr. Hartley received on his anniversary and he is shown here with Mr. H. McNeill who presented the scroll on behalf of the managers.

Below—Seated from left to right: Mr. E. C. Davis, retired manager of the Lethbridge Store; 45-year Eatonian Mr. J. Hartley; Mr. H. McNeill, and Mr. H. Palmer. Department managers of the Calgary Store are grouped in the background. It is interesting to note that Mr. Davis only recently returned from a trip to Europe and he was very happy to have been present on the occasion of Mr. Hartley's anniversary.

Mr. Jack Hartley may make his home in Calgary but here in Edmonton we have come to feel that he is very much a part of our staff too! Therefore it is with genuine pleasure that we acknowledge his 45th anniversary with the

MR. GEORGE GOULDEN HONOURED ON RETIREMENT . . .

On his retirement from the Company after 13½ years' service, Mr. George Goulden of the Men's and Boys' Wear Department was entertained at a stag party on the evening of Friday, August 6th. The get-together was attended by George's co-workers with two former members of Departments 228 and 229 on hand to share the festivities. They were Mr. Jack Pickford of the Hosiery Department and Mr. Chester Bindon of the Music Department.

A very handsome gift — a clock-radio—was presented to George as a retirement remembrance from his associates, with Mr. Ross MacLean, manager of Departments 228 and 229, making the presentation. In so doing he outlined George's career with Eaton's and at the same time he surprised the guest-of-honor by revealing something of the years that led up to the time he became an Eatonian. The element of surprise grew out of the fact that George hadn't an inkling that anyone in the party knew that he was born in County Sligo in Northern Ireland, nor did he think that it was generally known that he had served his apprenticeship in Ireland with E. J. Bourns and Company.

It was in 1923 that George set sail for Canada and prior to joining the Eaton staff he worked for a Vancouver firm. This was another facet in his business career that he thought unknown to his co-workers.

George joined Eaton's in 1943 and all his years with the Company were spent in the same department— Men's and Boys' Wear.

HONOURS FOR MRS. JEAN CAMERON . . .

Mrs. Jean Cameron, popular member of the Women's Ready-to-Wear Department, retired from active service with the Company on Wednesday, August 15th, and on the evening of the 14th she was entertained at a dinner party held at the Seven Seas Restaurant. About thirty of her associates were in attendance and a very special guest was Miss Mary Legate, manager of the Ready-to-Wear Department before her recent retirement.

As the evening began Mrs. Grace Mitchell presented Jean with a pretty corsage and later there was a beautiful gift for the guest-of-honour—an exquisitely designed bracelet set with sparkling rhinestones and earrings to match. In making the presentation Miss Elvie Hukkanen, manager of the Ready-to-Wear Department, congratulated Jean on the loyal, efficient service she had given the Company during her ten years as an Eatonian, and when she extended good wishes to Jean for a happy future she was expressing the sentiments of all the Ready-to-Wear staff.

Jean's appreciation of the honours tendered her was warmly apparent in a very gracious thank-you speech, and so, too, was her delight in the lovely gift her co-workers chose to present her as a retirement memento.

The evening's entertainment was keenly enjoyed by all. Miss Legate had brought along some of her movies and her audience proved to be a most enthusiastic one. All the wonders of Hawaii were reflected in her movie version of her holiday in that colourful and exotic part of the world. Another film brought to life again the happy evening that had been Miss Legate's own retirement party and in this instance those who viewed the film were seeing themselves as "members of the cast." Yet another film featured the fun that had been a part of a shower held in honour of Mrs. Harold Morrison who was Betty Sinclair before her marriage. All the movies were in colour.

Jean's retirement promises more time to spend with a fast-growing quintet of youngsters—her grandchildren—all of them boys and all of them living in Edmonton. Two of the five are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Self. (Mrs. Self is Jean's daughter, Grace.) Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cameron, (Jean's son and his wife,) are the happy parents of the other three.

Jean has another daughter, Veva, (Mrs. Russell Temple,) who, with her husband, makes her home in North Hollywood. The evening after her retirement, Jean boarded a plane and was on her way for a visit with the Temples—a visit that will keep her in California for a whole month. We're certain the holiday will bring a glorious retreat from the busy workaday schedule and it is our sincere wish that the years ahead will be many—and happy—and abundantly healthy!

McCordick CUP TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS SUMMER SPORTING EVENTS

McCordick Trophies Shared by Calgary and Edmonton!

The R. S. McCordick Cup, claimed by Calgary's Alex Marshall last year, remained in the possession of the Calgary Store when Bill Adams copped top honours in this season's tournament. On the other hand, the Mrs. McCordick Cup, emblematic of golfing supremacy among the girls of the Alberta Stores, was brought back to Edmonton by our own Mary Meagher of the Toiletries Section. Last year's winner was Mabel Eastham of Calgary.

Our heartiest congratulations go to all the winners—to Bill and Mary and to the runners-up, Ken Haise of Red Deer and Ivy Heaps of Calgary. We are especially pleased that one of the trophies came to our Store and we are especially proud of Mary for bringing it to us!

Calgary's beautiful Earl Grey Course was the scene of the 1956 playoffs and the competition continued for two days—Monday and Tuesday, August 27th and 28th. While Mary Meagher represented the Edmonton girls, Mike Warwick, assistant in the Employment and Staff Relations Office, made the trip on behalf of the men. Representatives from Calgary, Red Deer, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat also participated.

The hospitality of Calgary Eatonians was wonderfully warm and the visitors were royally entertained during their stay in the Stampede City.

When a hail storm cancelled plans for a barbecue on Monday evening, the scene of festivities was shifted to the Fort Garry House at the Stampede Corral and those who attended vow they've never been treated to a more delicious steak dinner.

A lively group of Western artists provided a fine musical program and a sing-song and dancing rounded out the evening.

Incidentally, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sangster attended the McCordick tournament with the Edmonton golfers and it happened that on August 27th they were celebrating their wedding anniversary. How their secret became known remains a mystery to the two of them but during the evening they were happily surprised with the presentation of a lovely gift and they were further delighted when "The Anniversary Waltz" was played in their honour. Jimmie is in charge of our Time Office.

On the evening of Tuesday, August 28th, the golfers were entertained at a banquet held in the West Room of the Palliser Hotel. Mr. H. McNeill, manager of the Calgary Store, officially welcomed the visitors and it was he who presented the R. S. McCordick winner, Bill Adams, with the coveted trophy. Mrs. Howard Palmer presented the Mrs. McCordick Cup to Mary Meagher. Runners-up Ken Haise and Ivy Heaps received their prizes from Mr. Palmer, assistant manager of the Calgary Store. There were cash awards for all winners.

Other speakers included Betty Maxwell, Lethbridge; Ken Haise, Red Deer; Jimmie Sangster, Edmonton and Alex MacKenzie, Medicine Hat. All of them expressed appreciation to their Calgary hosts for the good time that was so completely a part of the McCordick tournament.

Calgary's friendly welcome—the fun and good fellowship that punctuated the entire event—all of these things will long be remembered by the visitors. So, on behalf of the Edmonton contingent we extend a gracious thank-you once again to those who gave so generously of time and effort to assure the success of the tournament . . . to Mr. H. McNeill, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Palmer, to Connie O'Riordan, Sally Marion, Ivy Heaps, Lionel Wood and Alex Marshall—to all those Calgarians who worked for the good time everyone most assuredly had. They did a superb job and if we had a tengallon hat we would certainly doff it in their direction!

Our personal thanks to Mr. Woodrow Case, Advertising Manager of the Calgary Store, for an excellent set of pictures and for the notes that helped us write our story!

HONOURED ON RETIREMENT . . .

Another retirement gift received by George ere he left the Store was a combination humidor and pipe rack—a friendly token from his fellow bowlers in the Eaton League. For years George has been an enthusiastic participant in this sport and so it was quite fitting that he should be remembered by the bowlers when his retirement came along. This presentation was made by another well-known Eaton bowler, Ray Gregg, also a member of the Men's Wear staff.

The girls of Departments 228 and 229 were likewise among those who remembered George on his retirement and their gift was a stein of unique proportions. Jim Agrios made the presentation on behalf of the girls.

George was very pleased with all his gifts, and the warm fellowship that was so much a part of the gathering made his retirement an occasion he will always remember with pleasure.

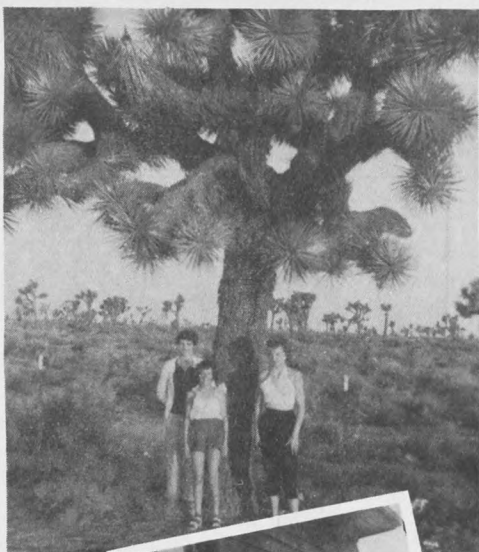

During his years with the Store George's cheerful good nature became well known to Eatonians and customers alike and so both groups are bound to miss him. Nevertheless, he has arrived at that enviable point in life when leisure hours bring time for rest and relaxation and the pursuit of activities that cannot always be fully enjoyed as a part of the workaday routine. And so, as we extend good wishes to George we would express the hope that many happy, satisfying years will form the pattern of his future.

HAPPY HOLIDAY . . .

The Gallens—Helen of our Hosiery Department, her husband, Jack and their three lovely daughters, Sandra, Audrey and Evelyn, motored all the way to Tijuana, Mexico during their two weeks' vacation this Summer and many of the sights that intrigued them were recorded on film. Happy we are to reproduce four photographs from their holiday album.

Centre, left—Evelyn, Sandra and Audrey standing beneath a Joshua tree. This is the type of scenery that greeted the Gallens as they journeyed from Las Vegas to San Diego.

Lower left—Young Sandra Gallen loved the outfit she got in San Francisco's Chinatown and here she models it in the coy manner of a dainty Oriental miss.

The garish charm of Tijuana's streets and markets delighted the Gallens and they had a field day of fun in San Diego's famous Balboa Park and its fine zoo. Knott's Berry Farm and Disneyland—both in the vicinity of Los Angeles—also impressed them, as did San Francisco's Chinatown.

Yes, the Gallens did indeed have an unforgettable trip this Summer and another year they hope to re-visit the scenes they found so exciting.

VACATION TRIP TO BRITAIN . . .

Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London, London Bridge and Big Ben, the Old Curiosity Shop, Shakespeare's birthplace and Ann Hathaway's cottage—all of these sights and many more besides came alive for Mrs. Jessie Gittins as she toured the British Isles during the Summer. Moreover, there were happy reunions with friends and relatives and the entire period she spent overseas was so memorable that even now she is making plans to repeat the experience in a couple of years or so.

Jessie, a staff member of our Notions Department, kindly loaned us some of her holiday pictures and we print them here for the enjoyment of our readers.

RECENT VISITORS . . .

The latter part of August brought us four visitors—all of them members of the Eaton staff and all of them associated with the Winnipeg Store. The four were: Mr. W. E. Chalmers, Mr. D. L. Smith, Mr. W. J. Wakefield and Mr. C. W. Bradshaw. It was a privilege and a pleasure to welcome them to Eaton's in Edmonton and we hope they thoroughly enjoyed their stay in our city.

RAE'S HOLIDAY . . .

More and more Eatonians are finding pleasure in colour photography and when Rae Murray of the Cash Office returned from her vacation in California she brought back a collection of transparencies that revealed a beauty that black-and-white photography could never quite achieve. Would that we could reproduce them here! However, Rae also took some pictures in black-and-white and we chose three of them to share with you.

Lower left—Prairie folk never fail to thrill at the sight of the ocean and the sound made by the breakers as they invade the sandy beach. This photo, showing a pier reaching far out into the water, was taken at Redondo Beach.

Upper right—Deep sea fishing was a new experience for Rae and here she and her friend, Vivian Hopkins, display some of the catch.

Rae and Vivian went as far south as San Diego and like all visitors to that city, they found particular enjoyment in Balboa Park and the zoo.

HOLIDAY AT THE LAKE . . .

Ofttimes the happiest of holidays are to be found within a few miles of home for there is undeniable charm in a peaceful countryside and few there are who can resist the lure of a sandy beach on a sunny summer's day! Alberta Beach on the shores of Lac Ste. Anne is only one of many resorts within easy access of Edmonton and it has much to offer the vacationer. There's swimming and fishing and boating plus many another activity designed to woo healthful relaxation—and all of this in a setting of incomparable beauty—trees and sky mirrored in shimmering waters—sunrises and sunsets that register a majestic blending of all the glorious hues on nature's wide palette—the air alive with bird songs seldom heard above the din of city life.

It was at Alberta Beach where Lil Bloom of the Fabrics Department spent her vacation and the good time she enjoyed is reflected in the snapshots she brought back with her. One of them we print on this page and if you look to the right you'll see our Lil. The smiling chap pictured with her is her fiancé, Graham Yeats.

ANOTHER HAPPY HOLIDAY . . .

The Jongsmas—Lucy of our Men's Furnishings Department, and her husband, Chester, holidayed in the United States this Summer and their motor trip took them as far South as Salt Lake City. In reaching this beautiful Mormon metropolis they travelled from Edmonton down into Idaho, through part of Washington and from thence along the picturesque coastline of Oregon. After enjoying the sights of that part of the country they went inland again, finally reaching their ultimate destination—Salt Lake City. There they spent several days discovering the many interesting sights this friendly Utah city has to offer. Homeward bound they journeyed through Idaho and Montana.

At the right you see Chester and Lucy on the beach of the Great Salt Lake and it was there they proved for themselves the great buoyancy of this famous body of water.

An enjoyable holiday? It certainly was and both Lucy and Chester are eager to repeat the experience.

WELCOME NEWCOMERS . . .

Once again it is our privilege to roll out the welcome mat in friendly recognition of those who have recently become Eatonians! To each and every one of the following we extend the wish that working at Eaton's will bring both pleasure and satisfaction in great abundance:

Department 212—MRS. H. TONER.

Department 267—MR. R. RIPLINGER.

Department 379—MISS M. LLOYD.

Department 1100—MRS. M. MITCHELL.

C.A. & D.A.—MRS. H. PRICE.

B.P.—MISS. L. SOLOWAY, MISS A. AUDY,
MRS. I. GOLINOWSKI.

EATONIANS ENTERTAINED . . .

Before they left the Store to join the Air Force the Townsend sisters—Joan of the Shopping Card Section and Margaret of the Budget Plan Office—found themselves invited to a shower for one of their Eaton associates, Lil Bloom of the Fabrics Department. Lil, on the other hand, found herself invited to a farewell party for the Townsend girls. It wasn't until the three of them got together at the party that they discovered they were all honoured guests and the element of surprise added an extra note of merriment to the evening's proceedings.

Mrs. Vi Fraser of the Cashiers and Parcellers was the hostess and the guests, all of them members of the Eaton staff, were entertained in her home. There were many lovely gifts for bride-to-be Lil, and farewell gifts for Joan and Margaret. Presentations over, the girls enjoyed a period of games and the evening ended with the serving of delicious refreshments. It was an entertaining party that Vi had planned for her friends and it will be remembered with special pleasure by the three who were honoured guests—Lil, Joan and Margaret.

MARKS 45th ANNIVERSARY . . .

Company and as we extend our congratulations we would also wish him the best of everything for the future—continued success, good health in great abundance and much happiness!

Although it fell on Sunday, August 19th, Mr. Hartley's anniversary was officially celebrated the day before—on Saturday, the 18th. Among the many beautiful gifts from friends and associates there was a Hi-Fi tape recorder from the management and department managers of all the Alberta Stores and the Winnipeg Audit Department. Mr. H. McNeill, manager of the Calgary Store made the presentation while numerous messages that had arrived via wire and letter were read by Mr. H. Palmer, assistant manager.

An illuminated scroll from the management of the Calgary Store was much enjoyed by Mr. Hartley, as was the humorous card received from the Edmonton management and department managers. Mr. Ernie Pears, our Display manager, designed the clever greeting.

. . . and so another Alberta Eatonian has achieved the 45-year mark in his career and once again, in acknowledgement of a proud record of service we say: "Congratulations, Mr. Hartley, and the best of everything from all your Eaton friends in Edmonton!"

BIRTHDAY PARTY . . .

Birthdays are pretty important, especially when you're a young fella just turning eight and when four of your best chums are on hand to share the celebrations with you. That was the experience of Ward Ellison Stuart when on Wednesday, August 15th, he said goodbye to being seven as his Mom arranged a little party for him. Pictures were taken, of course, and we print one of them at the left. That's Ward in the centre with Bill and Charlie at the left and Johnnie and Keith at the right. In front of Ward is a nice big birthday cake and right beside it several gifts waiting to be opened.

We're especially interested in Ward's growing-up for he is one of the junior members of the big Eaton family. His mother, Mrs. Margaret Stuart, is a staff member of our Winnipeg Mail Order Office. It is interesting to note that Ward's birthday brought him the bicycle he'd long been wanting, and, you've guessed it—the bike was the gift of his Mom and Dad.

WE REPORT

ON CORA'S HOLIDAY . . .

Cora Plum of our Boys' Wear Department and her friend, Susie Schneider enjoyed a motor trip when their vacation came 'round this Summer, and their travels took them approximately 2,500 miles with pleasant weather following them all the way.

On leaving Edmonton they headed toward Yellowstone National Park via Great Falls and Billings. On their arrival they set up camp and spent several pleasant days reviewing the many wonders that nature has provided within the confines of this famous Park.

Homeward bound they followed another route, passing through Helena, Missoula and Coeur d'Alene before entering Canada again. On this side of the border they visited Radium and the Columbia Ice Fields. Still travelling Northward they arrived in Jasper, their final stop before returning to Edmonton. It was truly a thrilling holiday trip—a fact the girls will heartily verify if you wish to ask them about their travels.

Pictured at the right: Susie and Cora in Yellowstone Park—and if you don't think they're experienced campers, just listen to this! Wherever they stopped to camp it took them no more than twenty minutes to set up their tent and organize everything in it. A splendid record, we'd say!

Bottom right: With a tasty tidbit in her hand Susie tempts a deer in Jasper Park. These lithe creatures are on the friendliest of terms with visitors to the Park and the visitors, in turn, never fail to find the animals most enchanting.

GIFT FOR JANE . . .

Mrs. Jane Barabash of the Fancy Goods Department recently left the Store to devote all of her time to her home and as she said goodbye to her co-workers they presented her with a pretty nylon blouse—a gift that spoke of happy friendships formed during the time she spent in Department 222.

Our good wishes go with you, too, Jane—and we hope the future will hold the best of everything for you!

SINCERE SYMPATHY . . .

At this time Eatonians throughout the Store would extend their heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Ken Barr, assistant in the Footwear Department, in the sad loss of his father who passed away in Brandon on Thursday, August 2nd.

THANK-YOU NOTES . . .

The following thank-you note came from Kenneth S. Barr, assistant, Footwear Department:

"On behalf of my mother and members of my family may I express through The Edmontonian our grateful appreciation to Mr. Snowden and the Company, to the Assistants' Association, to Mr. Dargavel and the staff of Department 237, and to the Welfare Department, for the many kindnesses extended and for the beautiful flowers and expressions of sympathy received when my father passed away recently."

The following note from Mrs. Harold Morrison of the Millinery Department, (Betty Sinclair before her marriage,) is addressed to the Company and it expresses thanks for a wedding gift:

"I wish to gratefully acknowledge the very lovely gift that was presented to me on the occasion of my marriage and which will serve as a constant reminder of the past 13 years during which time it has been my pleasure to serve."

"I trust that I might be permitted to continue to serve the Company of which I am proud to be a member."

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Coon, would like their sincere thanks to go to the Company and to the staff of the Bargain Section for the beautiful gifts they received on the occasion of their marriage.

From the Company there were several pieces of silver flatware to match the set Mrs. Coon had been collecting before her wedding, and in addition there were four handy folding chairs.

From the Bargain Section staff the Coons received a coffee table—a handsome and useful occasional piece they will always treasure in their home.

Jerry, incidentally, is a staff member of the Bargain Section.

The following note comes from Mrs. Jessie Adams of the Drapery Department Work Room staff:

"Through The Edmontonian I would like to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. J. A. Snowden, to staff members of the Drapery Department and the Work Room, and to the Welfare Department for the beautiful flowers and messages of sympathy which I received when my father passed away."

Mrs. Jean Willis of the Stationery Section would like to express her grateful thanks and appreciation to her co-workers in Department 212, to Mr. J. A. Snowden and the Company, and to the Welfare Department for the words of sympathy and the beautiful flowers she received when her mother passed away recently—and for the many kind and thoughtful acts that brought comfort in her sad bereavement.
